Five Reasons to Join The Alaska Society of CPAs...

1. Stay Current – The accounting profession is constantly evolving and changing. As an AKCPA member, you can receive the latest information and profession updates that matter most to you as a CPA.
2. Advocacy – The AKCPA wants your voice to be heard. The AKCPA is represented at AICPA Council, provides liaison and representation before the IRS as well as input on legislative issues that affect the profession in Alaska.
3. Leadership Opportunities – The AKCPA offers members committee volunteer opportunities in a wide variety of areas ranging from Accounting & Auditing, Legislative to Taxation and Financial Literacy. Committee service allows members to contribute to the profession and to the community.
4. Professional Development – The Continuing Professional Education Programs (CPEs) offered through AKCPA are among the most highly rated in the nation and include the most qualified discussion leaders. AKCPA members receive valuable CPE discounts.
5. Alaska CPA Community – The AKCPA offers opportunities for members to connect with other CPAs in your area of the state. Members develop a network of fellow professionals and technical experts through business and social interaction with peers.
